

Biography

Jon Shaw, founder of ginclearfilm, became a certified diver at 13, commercially trained at 19 and gained his instructor rating at 21.

Jon holds a BSc (Hons) Degree in Marine Biology from the University of Plymouth and gained extensive technical knowledge and experience working in broadcasting whilst working for ONdigital in the UK.

Jon has shot for all the major networks both here in Australia and also internationally including National Geographic and has won multiple awards including a Silver ACS Award for Wildlife and Nature. He also has developed and lectures underwater cinematography at the Australia Film Television and Radio School (AFTRS) at Fox Studios.

Jon has shot on multiple formats including, HDCAM, VariCam, XDCAM Ex, HDV and currently us shooting underwater with a Gates Deep Epic and Red Epic / Scarlet system, the only one of it's kind in Australia.

Jon has lead diving expeditions right throughout Australia, The Cocos Islands in Costa Rica, Papua New Guinea, Fiji, Hawaii, Indonesia and South Africa.

Jon Shaw is a:

- Member of the Australian Cinematographers Society (ACS);
- PADI Master Instructor;
- HSE Part IV Commercial Diver;
- Certified in Closed Circuit Rebreather (Buddy Inspiration)
- Certified in Semi Closed Circuit Rebreather (Drager Dolphin)
- TDI Instructor; and
- Certificate IV Workplace Trainer and Assessor
- Workplace Approved First Aid Trainer
- Workplace approved Emergency Oxygen Administrator

For further information, gear list and rates contact Jon Shaw on +61410293065 or email jon.shaw@ginclearfilm.com